

Ying Wang
Partner
Bird & Bird, Shanghai
ying.wang@twobirds.com

INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR:
AHEAD OF THE CURVE - NAVIGATING THE NEW WORKPLACE:
COMPARING MALAYSIA AND CHINA

Bird & Bird

Speaker Profile

Ying has a strong track record in advising both international and domestic clients on contentious and non-contentious employment issues. Ying Wang is a partner in Bird & Bird's International HR Services Group, based in Shanghai, where she heads its Employment practice for China.

She has close to 20 years experience across the full range of employment issues, including various PRC labour and social insurance regulatory matters, mass layoffs, labour disputes, M&A-related matters, cross-border employment, and daily corporate labour issues. In addition, Ying was appointed as a part-time Arbitrator of the Shanghai Labour Dispute Arbitration Committee in September 2004 and advises on labour arbitration and litigation.

Ying's clients include multinational companies and Fortune 500 companies in various industries such as commercial banking, investment banking, FMCG, retail, luxury, IT and automobile. Ying also advises start-up companies and newly-established Foreign Invested Enterprises (FIEs), including M&A and restructures.